Trinity Missions Team Highlight

Tunisia is a country in North Africa that is 99% Muslim. This country has a rich Christian history and the government has enacted religious freedom reforms. The extreme persecution for Christ followers comes from family and communities that feel shamed by family members that leave Islam. We pray that religious liberty would grow, that Christ followers would seek comfort from community of other believers and many more would leave the darkness of Islam and receive the light of Christ into their lives. Amen.
